What Cats Do For Us

- Warm our laps
- Gives us someone to talk to
- Help reduce high blood pressure
- Bring winter air inside, nestled in their coats
- Create a kindred feeling with other "cat people"
- Turn common household objects like bottle caps into toys
- Make us more aware of birds
- Donate their services as alarm clocks
- Display daring acrobatic feats right in front of our eyes
- Contribute to a longer life
- Make a window sill more beautiful
- Keep mice on the run
- Make us smile
- Inspire poets and playwrights
- Teach us how to land on our feet
- Let us indulge our desires to really spoil someone
- Make our homes warmer
- Remind us that life is mysterious
- Share with us the all-is-well experience of purring
- Instruct us in the luxurious art of stretching
- Show us how to lick our wounds and go on
- Give us cool cartoon characters
- Make even an old worn couch look beautiful
- Open our heart

Cat of the Month

Phantom here! I am about 6 months old. And boy, oh boy am I excited about life! Aren't you? If so we'd be the perfect match! Are you up for some fun? Well a kitten like me might be just what you need. I will keep you entertained for hours, running, jumping, chasing string, playing with balls and attacking catnip mice. In all seriousness though, I am truly an exquisite young kitten and I am just waiting for the absolute PURR-fect home! Can you help me find it?

Adopted since last newsletter:

Cats:

Debbie, John, Joseph, Mona , Patty, Prisma

Dogs:

Bernie (featured last newsletter -dog of the month), Leo, Mulan, Primrose, Reggie and Stella

Please don't litter...

Spay and neuter your critter!

Dog of the Month

Hey there! Catherine's the name! I am on the look out for the right family to help a active youngster like myself become a wonderful part of society. My sister, Angelina, and I were dumped and left lonely and scared. But now we are happy girls. Both of us are learning to sit, stay, and lay down. Do you know any tricks that you could teach me?

“Until one has loved an animal,
a part of one's soul remains unawakened.”

– Anatole France

HIGHLIGHTS – Already half-way to our goal.

- Kerr County's continuing growth contributes to more homeless animals.
- Freeman-Fritts is committed to the need for shelter expansion.
- The new shelter will provide improved accommodations for more animals.
 - Better acoustics for quieter surroundings
 - More natural light and updated ventilation system
 - Glass enclosed visitation room
 - Two separate isolation rooms for incoming dogs and cats
- Cats will have greatly enlarged living space enclosures & outdoor playhouses.
- Dogs will benefit from larger indoor and outdoor runs and a new play yard.
- Enlarging the Solomon Building to a 5500 sq. ft. shelter will allow more efficient use of space to receive, care for and adopt out more animals.
- The sooner we reach our funding, the sooner we can save more lives.
